For Immediate Release

A fantastic first year for the Preston Legal Walk

1st sponsored Preston Legal Walk raises over £1,000 for free local legal help

On Monday 25 April, just over 60 lawyers, advisors and other legal professionals joined forces for a sponsored walk around the riverfront sights of Preston to raise over £1,000 to support free legal advice in Preston and throughout the North West.

Under the banner 'Supporting access to justice in the North West' 4 teams of walkers from law firms, barristers' chambers as well as the voluntary and advice sector came together to raise funds for the North West Legal Support Trust (NWLST) and other local free legal advice charities. Walkers were joined by Rachel Stevens, a trustee of the North West Legal Support trust.

The 10km route took in the lovely river sights the city had to offer, with many walkers remarking they saw a side to the city they hadn't seen before. The weather was bright and breezy; a perfect spring day to stride out and raise money for a vital cause.

Walkers taking part fundraised for the cause by seeking sponsorship and were welcomed with a drink at the finishing line reception, at the Scholar's Restaurant, gratefully received by thirsty walkers.

Alongside some well-deserved refreshments walkers were welcomed back by the lead walkers who spoke about the growing importance of continuing free legal advice and support for the free legal advice sector and individuals who rely on their services.

The event is run by the North West Legal Support Trust (NWLST). The NWLST was formed in 2010 to raise and distribute funds to support the provision of free legal advice in Preston and throughout the North West to those who otherwise would not be able to afford it. It is part of a network of Legal Support Trusts, working with the Access to Justice Foundation, to facilitate the access to specialist legal advice for the poorest and most vulnerable people in the community.

The organisations supported by the event make a huge difference in the lives of many people. The recent cuts to civil legal aid have not only affected the legal profession, but have also drastically impacted the services provided to members of the public.

The Preston Personal Support Unit (PSU) is a local charity which provides a range of free legal advice and support in and around Preston to some of the city's most vulnerable citizens who often seek their services as a desperate last resort.

Cuts to legal aid and local government funding of advice services means charities such as these are fighting to survive. Some organisations have merged, meaning already tight resources are being stretched over greater distances, but more frequently, others have ceased to provide services altogether.

A representative from the NWLST said “We are truly delighted that the Preston Legal Walk has had a fantastic first year with people coming out to support access to justice for the most vulnerable and more funds being raised to support the vital services when help these people in their time of need. Thanks to all our walkers, supporters and sponsors the NWLST will be able to make more and larger grants than ever before, ensuring local services benefit from local support.”
